Bridgeport.

A few good days last week for making maple molasses.

Miss Jennie Cunningham and niece, Belle, have located near Graefenburg.

Mr. James Crockett left for his home in Louisville last Tuesday.

Five widow ladies dined at the home of Mrs. Carlton last week, which was quite a regular social gathering. No one else at the table when the following conversation was engaged in. The youngest lady said to the four older ones: "This will be the last time that we will dine together as five widows, as I will be led to the marriage altar before many months expire." All engaged in a hearty laugh, separated and wished her success through life.

Miss Annie Hall is attending Prof. Turner's school at Frankfort.

Miss Bernice Jenkins, of Louisville, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mr. C. W. Taylor has been on the sick list for several weeks, but is now convalescent.

Esquire J. B. Russell and family are located in Frankfort, where he will be found engaged in harness making.

Mr. Owen Tapp has been very much indisposed for quite a time.

Mr. W. F. Russell and family left for LaGrange Wednesday, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Jennie Allen, of Lexington, is visiting the family of William Armstrong, st.

Messrs. C. M. and J. W. Jenkins were in Louisville this week on business.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the F. & L. U. of Bridgeport Lodge was held Thursday night with several prominent speakers present. The Alliance will not allow any politician or friend of a politician to lead it about by the nose.

Mr. Walton Parrent has recovered from his recent illness, and left for Hopkinsville, where he is engaged in business.

Miss Leander Morris, of Scott county, is visiting the family of Mr. Franklin Morris.

Mrs. Carswell,

Of Leroy, N. Y., was dying of Neuralgia of the Heart. The attending physician had made his last visit and said there was no possible chance of her living but a few hours. Her son had been telegraphed for from Rochester to inform him. Mr. Kennedy, at the critical moment, an agent, calling Dr. Hale's Household Ointment called at the house and told them the lady need not die at that time if she would follow his directions. He was so earnest and positive that the family concluded to try the new remedy. It began to bring relief at once to the region about the heart; the pain soon ceased and Mrs. Carswell rapidly recovered and is alive and well today, and she and all her family say Dr. Hale's Household Ointment saved her. What wonderful medicine can be had in Phil. Carpenter's drug store, South Side.

Carved by McKee.

Last Saturday morning Dr. Jno. Mc Kee and Chas. Kennedy, both of this county, became involved in an alteration. High words passed between them and were exchanged. Mr. Kennedy struck Dr. McKee three times whenupon Dr. McKee drew a knife and inflicted two wounds upon Mr. Kennedy, one just above the right eye about an inch and a half long, and the other across the left arm between the shoulder and elbow, severing all the muscles of the arm. The wounds are not fatal, but are very painful. Versailles Clarion.

Standard Investment.

S. S. Bradford of Montgomery, Mo., writes: "Please send me a bottle of Quinn's Ointment, I have used it for Capped Hoof, Windpuffs and Thoroughgrip with great success, would be without it in my barn."

The Woman Hater.

Roland Reed had a royal welcome last night at the Fourth Street Theatre, where he appeared last night in D. D. Lloyd's "eccentric comedy," in four acts, called "The Woman Hater." The play is full of ridiculous scenes, and the audience greeted them with continuous laughter. The story is highly amusing and deals with the love affairs of Samuel Bundy, who is popularly known as a woman hater, but who, as he confesses to his bosom friend, is a woman's man—entirely, "dotes upon women." There is little attempt at characterization. Samuel Bundy is a caricature, roughly drawn to amuse a multitude like the cartoonists in the comic papers. Mr. Bandy finds himself in the predicament of an engagement to three women at the same time. He is mistaken for an ex-professor whose mental "arrangements" are supposed to be disordered and a man of a woman's mind on his wedding day. Roland Reed invested the part of Samuel Bundy with considerable humor. He was extremely amusing. His humor was spontaneous, and it affected the audience to tears of laughter. The support was excellent. —New York World, Feb. 28, 1888.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—U. S. Govt Report, Aug. 27, 1889.

At the Opera House Saturday evening, Feb. 29th.

Is Life Worth Living.

This is a question that would be answered very differently by different individuals. To some living is a pure enjoyment, to others life is a burden. To a man or woman who never feels well, who arises in a morning unrefreshed, with a tired languid feeling, life is indeed a burden. This is the result of a torpid liver, inactive condition of the kidneys, a foul stomach, &c. This condition can all be quickly changed and life made happy by the use of Dr. Hale's Household Ointment. Tea, the great blood purifier and nerve tonic, it cures all biliousness, constipation, inaction of the liver and kidneys and makes a person feel new. 50 cent packages at Phil. Carpenter's drug store, South Side.

The Calf All Right.

Near Marathon, Texas, two men got into a dispute about a calf. One killed the other. The Deputy Sheriff then killed the murderer and was himself shot in the leg. Two horses were also killed in the duel. At last accounts the calf was doing finely.

The Major's Sunday Out.

The Oldham Index says: Major Henry T. Stanton and daughter, Miss Virginia, of Frankfort, were at Estancia and Sunday with Mr. C. W. Dorsey, of this place. The boarders at Funk Seminary Hall enjoyed a rare intellectual treat on Saturday evening—the major favoring them with the reading of "The Devil's Hole," "The Devil's Hollow," "The Peter Bird," and other poems of his composition. Miss Virginia won the hearts of all by her beauty and accomplishments. We hope to have them visit our town again soon, as all who were fortunate enough to meet them were highly entertained with their charming society.

Between The Pikes.

Mr. Robert Young and wife visited the family of W. H. Sudluth last Sunday.

Miss Nora Sudduth visited her aunt Mrs. W. M. Pulliam last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. George Moore is preparing to erect his son, Elowen, a neat cottage on his premises.

NETTIE GRAY.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup—the working man's friend. You, who have to be out in all sorts of weather and can't afford to lay by, can not afford to be without it. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Consumption follows in the wake of a neglected cold.

He loved his horse, even as an Arab would, and grieved to see him suffer and die, even as if he was human, so he listened when one told of Salvatory Oil, and to-day his horse is well and he is happy.

We CAN AND DO

Guarantees Dr. Acker's Blood Elixir, for it has been fully demonstrated to the people of this country that it is superior to all other tonics in its action. It is a positive cure for syphilis poisoning, Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution.

J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

Defoe.

Health good in this locality.

Mrs. Fannie Moore and daughter of this place, visited her father-in-law near Jacksonsville last week.

Misses Pinkie and Rosa Jesse visited their parents, near New Castle, on the 6th and 7th of this month.

Messrs. J. L. Stivers and J. F. Claxon have been in Louisville this week laying in a general supply of merchandise. They are doing a good business at this place.

Dr. J. F. Jesse delivered an excellent speech at Fallen Rock, in behalf of the F. & L. U. on last Tuesday night. He was received in by all.

The matrimonial car has stopped at this place. I thought at first time it would have a successful visit. I can't tell what is the matter unless it is on account of fuel.

What has become of the Six Mile Girl? I would like to hear from her. I guess the owl has quit carrying news.

Mr. Jeff. Riner, of Pleasureville, seems to be dealing in tobacco, at least his conversation runs that way. He had another agent met one Mr. T. Deakin, near Bardstown, a very pious man. He told the other agent that he thought that a man could electorine enough through the week and leave Sundays off. But it seems that Mr. Riner likes to electorine a little on Sunday too. At least he is seen to be going in that direction nearly every Sunday.

J. L. Stivers and family, of this place, are visiting the family of John T. Deakin, near Bardstown.

On Monday night last some one broke into the house of an old colored man at this place and took eight pieces of meat and six or seven gallons of lard, sugar, coffee and all the flour he had.

The F. & L. U. County Union that met at this place the 9th was quite a success; thirteen out of sixteen subdivisions were represented. A nice dinner was spread for all and we had a good time.

JUMBO.

Marvelous Endurance.

The vast amount of labor performed by the heart in keeping all portions of the body supplied with blood is not generally known. It beats 100,000,000 times, and forces the blood at the rate of 20,000,000 miles which is 3,000,000,000 times and 3,150,800 miles in a life time. No wonder there are so many Heart Failures. The first symptoms are shortness of breath when exercising, pain in the heart, palpitation, flushed cheeks, cold perspiration, fainting, oppression, difficulty in breathing, swelling ankles etc. Dr. Franklin Miles' NEW HEART CURE is the only reliable remedy. Sold by J. W. Gayle, Frankfort, Ky.

All a Mistake.

For the benefit of the Frankfort papers and local anglers, we desire to call attention to the fact that mud-castings was good in the deep pools on Broadway Main and Short streets, during the recent rains, which but an idle rumor. The bar has been publicly stating that the Health Commissioner would stock these pools with German carp should be drummed out of town. — Lexington Transcript.

Shot at the Train.

As the 2:50 train from Lexington was passing the engine house in Bellpoint Wednesday afternoon, Charles Hunt and Wm. Kincaid, aged thirteen and nine years respectively, who had a 32-caliber pistol, concluded to try a shot at the cars as they went by. One of them fired away, the ball striking a rear window of the middle coach, passing through glass and blown, striking the ceiling of the car and fell to the floor. Fortunately the range was too high to strike any one in the car. The boys were seen to fire the shot by a brakeman, the conductor telephoned back from Bagdad to have the boys arrested, and flagman James Brown went over to Bellpoint, caught the little rebels and lodged them in jail. They were tried yesterday before County Judge Williams, when Hunt was discharged and Kincaid held in one hundred dollars bond to appear at the June term of the Circuit Court.

High-Priced Horse.

At the horse sale of Mr. W. T. Woodward, in Lexington, on Thursday, Anteoo by Electioneer, dam Columbine, was sold to Col. S. A. Brown of Kalamazoo, Michigan, for $55,000. On Time.

Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the Lexington nurseryman, is on time with his usual spring announcement, which will be found in another column. During the last ten or twelve years he has been supplying the people of this city and county with fruit trees, vines, and everything in his line, and in all these years not one of those who bought from him can say that he did not get exactly what he ordered. There is no uncertainty about a trade with Hector Hillenmeyer, he is a square man every way, and if you are needing anything in his line write to him.

Meat Found.

At Mr. Robt. Church's, on the Owenton Pike, about four miles from town, was found by his hands, while hauling straw last Thursday afternoon, some meat buried in the straw, tied up in an old shawl. There were seven pieces, three hams, one shoulder, one middling and two half middlings. Two of the hams had been rubbed in cheevy pepper and were fine ones. All large meat.

Any one who has lost meat suiting this description can obtain it by calling at Mr. Church's.

Death of Miss Hiter.

Miss Florence Hiter, youngest daughter of Mr. D. Porter Hiter, of Woodford county, her mother being Miss Sallie Harlan, of this city, died at the home of her brother-in-law in Kansas City, Missouri, on Tuesday, and the remains were brought to this city and interred in the family lot in the Cemetery. Miss Hiter was a beautiful young lady and had many friends in this city, where she had often visited. She had been a sufferer for the past year or more from consumption, which finally closed her bright young life.

High Sheriff Dehoney.

As a suit to which Sheriff John C. Noel's party was before the Circuit Court on Wednesday and Thursday, the duties of the office of High Sheriff of the county devolved upon Coroner W. S. Dehoney during the pendency of the case, and it is unnecessary to say that they were performed with the utmost dispatch and in Col. William S.'s only and original style. In setting the case for trial a few day before the Judge said, "The coroner will not bring his jury here before Tuesday," when a sleepy looking individual sitting in the Court House roused up and said to some one near, "The h-l; whose dead?"

FIRST BLOOD FOR FRANKFORT.

Louisville and Lexington Sent to Grass in the First Round.

The Constitutional Convention, on yesterday, by a large majority, defeated the section of the legislative report which provides that the Legislature, as soon as the Capital is located, shall appropriate a sum no exceeding $2,500,000 for the erection of Capital buildings. This decision virtually settles the Capital question in favor of Frankfort, leaving the amount of any appropriation to be made in the discretion of the legislative body desiring to make it.

Had this section been adopted Louisville and Lexington would have struggled for the possession of the Capital with extravagant buildings, but now it is evidently the desire of the Convention that Capital buildings shall be provided at the lowest figures, consistent with economy, and this can be done only at Frankfort. The friends of Frankfort on the floor of the Convention urged the many advantages that Frankfort possessed over Louisville and Lexington as the location for the Capital, and our neighbors of the blue grass and bear-grass are not happy.

The senior proprietor of this paper has been subject to cold fevers for some years, which were sure to lay him up, if not doctor'd at once. He finds that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is reliable. It opens the secretions, relieves the lungs, and restores the appetite to a healthy condition. If freely used, as soon as the cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it greatly lessens the attack and often cures in a single day what would otherwise have been a severe cold.

Grand Secretary.

At the meeting of the Grand Council of Kentucky, Royal Templars of Temperance, held in Louisville, Tuesday and Wednesday, Mr. Jas. A. Hodges, formerly of this city, was elected Grand Secretary of the order in the State.

Disorders which Affect the Kidneys.
Are among the most formidable known. Diabetes, Bright's disease, gravel and other complaints of the urinary organs are notorious for their severity and cannot be averted by timely medication. A useful stimulant of the urinary glands has ever been the bark of the Willow. A Willow Tincture which not only affords the requisite stimulus when they become inactive, but increases the activity of the kidneys and bladder, this medicine has the additional advantage of being a specific for the disease which it is the peculiar office of those organs to eliminate and pass. The bark is also a valuable stimulant to the bowels, and is a vigorous agent in the cure of piles. It strengthens and stimulates the heart, and gives it a tendency to premature decay and sustains and comforts the aged and weak.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS., Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

Death of R. H. Nicol.

Mr. Robert H. Nicol, one of the most highly respected citizens of this county, died at his home, one mile west of the city, on the L. & N. Railroad, Monday afternoon, after a lingering illness of about a year, aged 65 years. The deceased was born in Dumfries Shire, Scotland; he came to this country in 1852, located in Jefferson county, and took charge of the old Louisville fair grounds, at Crescent Hill. Upon the resignation of the late Robert Carmichael of the position of Superintendent of the Frankfort Cemetery in 1854, Mr. Nicol was appointed to fill the place, removed to this city, and continued in the position until 1878, when having purchased the farm of the late L. A. Thomas, he resigned and removed to it, where he continued to reside up to the time of his death.

During his long intercourse with our people Mr. Nicol had made a host of friends, and by his blunt honesty, quiet, gentlemanly demeanor had won the confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from his late residence, and the body was laid to rest in the grounds of our beautiful Cemetery, which for so many years were his pride and care, and friends performed for him the last sad office which he had so often done for others—only the members of his immediate family and a few friends being present as the burial was private.

Base Ball Magazines not Here.

It is rumored that Messrs. Von der Abe, of the St. Louis, Base Ball Club; Vonderhorst, of the Baltimore Club, and Wagener, of the Athletic Club, Philadelphia, were in the city Monday and held a secret consultation with Hon. Zach Phelps, delegate in the Constitutional Convention from Louisville, who is attorney for the American Base Ball Association. Mr. Phelps says the report was unfounded, however, and if the ball men were here they spent the night down on the river front or some other inaccessible point. Mr. Phelps said that he had received telegrams several days ago from a number of ball men asking him to meet them at Cincinnati and assist in settling some troubles with which they seemed to think he had to do. He answered them that he was quite busy in the Convention here; that he was out of base ball, and could not be of benefit to them if he was on hand.

Tarv. Baker Dead.

Hon. R. Tarvin Baker, who for two terms represented Campbell county in the Senate of Kentucky and was afterwards in the House of Representatives, some twenty years ago, died at his home in Alexandria on Sunday. During the first session of the Legislature of which he was a member he became a firm friend of Frankfort and was ready to fight her battles against all comers. Possessed of an eloquent tongue and commanding presence, he always held the attention of the House or Senate when he arose to speak, and in the social circle everybody knew and liked warm-hearted, jovial Tarv. Baker. Twice he led the forlorn hope of the Republican party as their candidate for Governor. Poor fellow! Some ten years ago his mind became affected and he was compelled to give up his profession, that of the law, and had since been living in retirement. His funeral took place on Tuesday at Alexandria and was largely attended, people from adjoining counties flocking in to pay the last honors to the gifted but unfortunate man. Peace to his ashes.

Four Generations.

There was a family gathering at the residence of Rev. H. H. Kavanaugh, on the corner of Todd and Main streets, on Wednesday evening, at which four generations of the Kavanaugh family were present, viz: Rev. W. B. Kavanaugh of Sulphur, Henry county father of Rev. H. H. J. Rev. H. M. Kavanaugh of this city; his son, Mr. W. M. Kavanaugh, wife and baby of Little Rock, Arkansas, and the latter gentleman's little baby boy. It was a happy party, but was soon broken up, for Mr. W. M. Kavanaugh, wife and baby left the next morning for their home in Arkansas.

At Last.

We are glad the Council has at last determined to have the old town clock cleaned and put in perfect running order.

Our citizens have depended upon the old time-keeper for so many years that things seem out of joint when it does not run right. In fact it is very discouraging to the average citizen, when he thinks he is going home early from the lodge, to have the clock, which has for the past half century regulated the hours of every household in the city, ring out fifteen or twenty-four o'clock on him.

Cremation.

The sermon preached by Dr. H. A. Henderson, in Trinity Church, Cincinnati, to an overflowing congregation, has been enlarged to a pamphlet of 50 pages and published. It gives the method employed, and the sanitary, sentimental and economic arguments for Cremation and answers objections. It is concise and candid, and in the author's best style. It can be had postpaid, by enclosing fifteen cents to Dr. Henderson, 23 Clark street, Cincinnati, O.

Will Meet Here.

The Kentucky heirs of the Robert Edwards estate will hold a meeting in this city on Monday, March 23d, 1891. The object of the meeting will be to form a more complete organization in the suit for this large estate, in which millions of dollars are involved.

Thank You, James.

Mr. James A. Murray, of this city, who attended the Mardi Gras festivities in New Orleans, has placed us under obligations for copies of New Orleans papers containing lithographic views of the immense parade.

Died in California.

Dr. H. C. Rankin, who married Miss Alice Lewis, formerly of this city, died at his home in Monroe, California, on Saturday, February 17th. Dr. Rankin and wife visited relatives in this city last fall, and it was then very evident to all who saw him that he would not live many months. He leaves a widow, but no children, and the hearts of her many friends here go out in sympathy to her in this dark hour.

Death of Mrs. Coleman.

Mrs. Chapman Coleman, the eldest and only living daughter of the late Hon. John J. Crittenden, died at her home in Louisville on Friday, and the remains were brought here on Monday and laid to rest in the Cemetery. She was a lady of marked ability, and had attained distinction in the literary world. For many years she was a leader of society in Washington City, where she resided until within the last few years.

22d of February.

The usual celebration of the 22d of February by the Literary Societies of Eminence College will be held in the college chapel to-day, as the 22d falls on Sunday. The Philanthropic Society will give an entertainment at 10 o'clock this morning and to-night the cantata of "Titania" will be given, followed by a comedy, entitled "A Transaction in Hearts." The former pupils and friends of the college can spend a pleasant day and evening by going down.

Changes in Time.

The new time-card of the L. & N. Railroad went into effect on Sunday. Under the new arrangement the morning train from Lexington does not arrive here until 9:30, instead of 8:20 as heretofore, and the afternoon train, which formerly arrived at 2:13 does not get in until 2:50. The C. & O. train, bound for the east, now leaves here three minutes earlier and the train from the east arrives thirteen minutes later. The 2:50 afternoon train makes close connection at LaGrange for Cincinnati, and only the accommodation makes connection at Anchorage for Shelbyville and Bloomfield.

To Be Entertained by Delegates.

An entertainment to be given the people of Frankfort by the Constitutional delegates has been arranged and will be a well affair. It will take place Thursday evening, February 26th, and is to be a reception, ball and banquet all in one, and will be given at the Capital Hotel. The ball room will be used for dancing; the spacious dining room for the supper and the parlors for receiving. Something more than 500 invitations are being sent out by the committee of delegates who have the arrangements in charge, and about a thousand dollars will be spent in the preparations.

The entertainment has been gotten up by the younger members of the Convention to show their appreciation of the many courtesies they have received at the hands of our citizens during the session.

SLEEP IN PEACE

BY USING

PRATTS KILLER

FOR BED BUGS.

This preparation is superior to all others for killing the bugs instantly.

It effectively destroys their eggs, therefore it is especially useful in getting rid of them during the season.

It possesses advantages over insect powders, inasmuch as it can be used in places which they can not reach.

It is safe, non-poisonous, and it is warranted not to injure carpets, floor or furniture.

No fatal effects can result from its use, and it will not injure any article which should give it a place in every household.

Sold in large bottles of 25 cents each.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, FEBRUARY 21, 1891.

Will Celebrate.

The children of the Public School will celebrate Washington's birthday on Monday by taking holiday.

From Dallas.

Col. D. C. Crutcher has placed us under obligations for several copies of New York papers, sent during his stay in that city.

New Sign.

Mr. Jas. M. Wakefield has placed a new and elegant sign at the office of his mill, which was executed by Messrs. Bridgeford Bros.

Moved Over.

Mr. Chase E. Haff has removed to his handsome new residence on the corner of Todd and Shelby streets, and has settled down to house-keeping on the South Side.

Delegates Entertained.

Judge William Lindsay and wife gave an elegant reception to the members of the Constitutional Convention, at their home on Wapping street, last evening. The supper was furnished by Messrs. Todd Bros.

Very Near It.

The streets of Frankfort have been in a wretched condition this week—almost as bad as those of Lexington, not quite, but very near it. They certainly should be cleaned oftener; not only in the business portion of the city but all over town.

Gen. Sherman Dead.

Gen. Wm. T. Sherman, the last of the three greatest generals of the Union Army during the late war, died at his home in New York on Saturday. The funeral took place in New York on Thursday and the remains were taken to St. Louis for interment by the side of his wife.

ENTITLED TO THE BEST.

All are entitled to the best their money will buy, so every family should have, to once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Fligs, to cleanse the system, when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists. 22-m.

Changed Hands Again.

Mr. J. A. Guinn has sold the Famous Laundry to Messrs. Sam. Whitehead and Llewellyn Peyton, two energetic young men, who will after the first of March conduct that establishment.

Squandered His Wealth.

The only Col. D. C. Crutcher, who was in New York last week, invested all his money in valentines to send to his friends in this city, and did not have enough left to purchase a postage stamp for a letter written to his wife, consequently the post-office officials had to notify her to send on a stamp so that the letter could be forwarded.

For the Monument Fund.

The ladies of the Confederate Memorial Association will give a grand fancy dress hop at the Capital Hotel ball room on the evening of Wednesday, April 1st, the proceeds to be devoted to the fund being raised for the purpose of erecting a monument to the memory of the Confederate soldiers buried in the Cemetery at this place.

Assistant Superintendent.

At a called meeting of the Board of School Trustees held on Tuesday evening, Miss Julia R. Todd was elected Assistant Superintendent of the Public School, and she will hereafter have charge of the school during the absence or sickness of Prof. Browder. The appointment is a first-class one, as Miss Julia is well qualified for the position.

A Rising Young Man.

In the Argus, published at Eddy, New Mexico, we find the following:

The Argus is greatly indebted to Councilman Richardson for copies of many important bills introduced in both houses of the Legislature. Lin-coin, Chaves and Eddy counties have reason to be proud of their young representative in the Territorial Council. Without any previous experience in legislation he has by his bold and decided advocacy of what was not only of his district, but the entire Territory, rapidly gone to the front and is now justly considered one of the ablest men in the Legislature. Although a Democrat in politics, no man more respect or exercises greater influence with the Republicans than he, and his vote and his efforts have always been cast for and in behalf of the people. The Argus congratulates him on such a record of trust that his future will redeem the rich political promise of the present.

The gentleman referred to was a student of Eminence College, and has many friends in this section, who will be glad to know that he is making his mark in New Mexico, to which Territory he removed in the fall of 1886. Councilman Richardson served several days in this city just before Christmas visiting friends.

Married at McClure's.

Mr. Strader Parrish and Miss Martha Perry, a couple from the Peak's Mill neighborhood, were united in marriage at the boot and shoe store of Mr. R. K. McClure, Tuesday morning, Rev. E. A. W. Roberts officiating. The young lady arrived in advance of the groom and took a seat, saying she was waiting for a friend, and after a short time the groom, preacher and a friend of the young couple came in, asked permission of Mr. McClure to be married there which of course was granted, when the party retired to the rear of the store, and the ceremony was so quickly and quietly performed that Mr. Will McClure, who was standing near the door, was not aware of what was going on until it was all over.

Fifty Spasms a Day.
Had Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vistaia, Indiana, been in Frankfort she would have been thought to be possessed by evil spirits. She was subject to nervous prostration, headaches, dizziness, backache, palpitation and forty to fifty spasms a day. Through the skill of Dr. Gayle she was treated for years without success, she was permanently cured by one bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervino. A trial bottle of this new and wonderful medicine and a finely illustrated treatise free at J. W. Gayle's drug store, who recommends and guarantees it.

Didn't Master.

Quite a number of the members of Dexter Lodge, Knights of Pythias, in this city, attended the grand celebration of the establishment of the order in Lexington on Wednesday, but did not participate in the parade, consequently did not have to be pulled out of the mud, which was six or eight inches deep on the streets of that city on Monday.

Will Build Shortly.

Mr. John T. Buckley will in a short time begin the erection of a neat two-story brick double tenement house on the lot on Shelby street recently purchased by him of Mrs. Sarah Luckett. Each house will contain six rooms, with all the modern conveniences of water and gas, and the building will add much to the appearance of the locality.

Drawing to a Close.

It has been announced that the Constitutional Convention will complete the consideration of all the reports of the committees next week, and all that will then remain for them to do is to harmonize the different reports and get the document in shape to submit to the people, which will require several weeks longer.

Masonic Notice.

Frankfort Lodge, No. 4, A. Y. M., will meet in regular communication on Thursday evening next, in the north hall of the Odd Fellows' Temple. A full attendance of the members desired, and visiting brothers fraternally invited. There will be work in the Master's degree.

CHILD KILLED.

Another child killed by the use of opiates given in the form of Soothing Syrup.
